

Malibu is where it's at for Canuck centremen his and bride-to-be

Vancouver Canucks new centre, Peter Sarno recently became engaged to be married, and knowing that he would be out of town for the next hockey season, felt the need to find a place in Toronto to come home to at the end of the season.

Together with his fiancée Stafania Scarpato, a young lawyer working in downtown Toronto, they knew they wanted to live in the downtown area and visited a number of condominium options.

"We drove along the Lakeshore one day and stopped at Malibu," said Peter. "We liked the feel, the location as well as the design of the building. The suite layout was exactly what we were looking for and the price seemed very reasonable. What impressed us was that the sales representative was so friendly. She made us feel comfortable and didn't pressure us at all."

Peter and Stafania said that they have been back to the sales office at least 20 times to go over various details about the suite.

"The view of the lake is fabulous. And we really liked the appliance package and floors that Malibu offered. Because we are both starting out, the $10,000 in free upgrades really helped, too. After visiting a lot of projects, in the end, we felt that Malibu was the best value of the condominiums that we had seen in downtown Toronto."

A professional hockey player for six years, Peter will return to Toronto to get married. He and Stafania believe that after they are married, Malibu will be an ideal option for their lifestyle, which will involve travel much of the year.

Prices start at just $109,900. The Malibu sales office is located on the northwest corner of Bathurst and Fleet Streets. Hours are Monday to Thursday from noon to 7 p.m.; weekends from noon to 5 p.m. For more information, call 416.601.1881 or visit malibuharbourfront.com.

Peter Sarno and fiancée, Stafania Scarpato