

Daniels offers a “Toronto Taste” preview at Kilgour Estate

Second Harvest Executive Director Zoe Cormack-Jones accepts a donation of $10,000 from Daniel's Vice-President Niall Haggart

The Daniels Corporation recently offered their guests a delicious preview of the city's most spectacular charity event - Toronto Taste. In partnership with Second Harvest, the event was hosted at the Kilgour Estate presentation centre off Bayview Avenue, south of Lawrence.

As a presenting sponsor of Toronto Taste for the past 11 years, Daniels is well acquainted with this annual occasion, and this year wanted to offer their purchasers a glimpse of what is to come. Guests enjoyed delectable appetizers from North 44 and Bymark Restaurants, wines from Henry of Pelham, beer from Amsterdam Brewery, pastries from Dufflets and refreshing dessert ices from Gelato Fresco. To top the night off, Daniels' Vice-

President Niall Haggart presented Second Harvest with a $10,000 cheque to support the organization further in their work in feeding those in need, bringing surplus food from restaurants to social service agencies across the city. Toronto Taste is the major annual fundraiser for Second Harvest, which is Toronto's only perishable food recovery program.

The event was a huge success, with North 44° owner and Second Harvest supporter Mark McEwan on-hand, along with Second Harvest Executive Director Zoe Cormack-Jones. They joined enthusiastic Kilgour Estate purchasers and VIP guests, enjoying mouth-watering food in an extraordinary setting.

Located on a 12-acre site,

Kilgour Estate is now well under construction and is a master-planned community of terraced condominium residences and Georgian-style townhomes, designed with old-world craftsmanship and timeless appeal. Overlooking the Burke Brook ravine, Kilgour features landscaped gardens and a tree-lined boulevard.

Kilgour Estate's suites and townhomes are priced from the $400,000s to over $2 million.

The sales centre and model suite are located at 50 Kilgour Rd., east of Bayview, south of Lawrence. Hours are Monday to Thursday from noon to 6 p.m.; weekends and holidays from noon to 5 p.m., closed Fridays.
